Read the following letter from the Honourable Sir V. Bhashyam Iyengar Kt. C.I.E., Acting Advocate General, dated 17th JUNE 1904:-

In acknowledging receipt of the Proceedings of Government No. 571 Rev., dated 2nd June 1904, I have the honour to state that in the usual course there is no chance of appeal No. 60 of 1904 being posted or reached before the end of 1904, and that there is no need for moving the High Court to adjourn the hearing of the appeal till the return in October next of Mr. Wallis from leave. The probability is that the appeal will be reached only about the end of 1905. The date fixed in the notice (viz) 13th July 1904 is only a nominal date. I would however suggest that the Government Pleader at Madura, who, I believe, is fully acquainted with the case should within 25 days from the date of service of the notice, file in the High Court an application for the translation and printing of the exhibits and depositions which he may select as material to support the judgment appealed against. If as I presume he will be engaged in the case to assist the Advocate General at the hearing of the appeal he may be instructed to enter his appearance on the 13th of July
